

- advertisements, 42–43, 93
- advice, 130
- agents, 118–119
- all rights, 115
- analysis, magazine, 33–37, 42–43. see also market research articles
 - copyright registration, 118
 - editing, 78, 146, 163–164, 167–169
 - format of, 146
 - humor in, 165
 - payment, 184–185
 - quotes, 157–158, 203–204
 - supporting documentation, 147–148
 - topics for, 198
 - to write or not to write, 109–110
- assignments
 - appropriate sentences for a query letter, 99–100
 - asking for one, 178–179
 - exclusivity deals, 201–202
 - goal setting, 84
 - magazine analysis, 46
 - market analysis, 30–32
 - syndication, 215–216
 - topic ideas for, 18, 19–20
- associations, 186–189, 192–193
- audience, 37, 45, 46, 96, 164–165. see also market research
- back-of-the-book material (BOB), 50–51, 198–200
- bio, 65–66, 88, 133–134
- BOB (back-of-the-book), 50–51, 198–200
- breaking in. see also market research
 - exclusivity deals, 201–202
 - topics, 196–197
 - preparation, 195–196
 - what you need to know, 200–201
- brochures, 95
- business incorporation, 9, 10
- business of writing, 7, 204–208. see also career
- business writing. see copywriting
- byline. see bio; clips
- career
 - books and ghostwriting, 213–214
 - contributing editor position, 179–180
 - diversification, 191–192
 - drawbacks, 219–220
 - generalizing, 170
 - goals, 80–83
 - persistence, 129–130, 197
 - reputation, 66, 98, 105
 - specialization, 170–172
 - when to go full-time, 217–219
- classes, 5
- cliffhangers, 76
- clips
 - credentials, 67–70
 - current, 71
 - for major magazines, 70
 - resubmitting, 126
 - sample articles, 69–70
- columns, 96, 97, 208–216.
- comfort zone, moving beyond, 79–80, 83
- confidence, 91
- consumer magazine market, 23
- contracts
 - bios, 133–134
 - follow-up letter, 135
 - kill fees, 132–133
 - payment terms, 131–132
 - sidebars and photos, 134–135
 - warnings, 188–189
 - work-for-hire, 115
 - writing on spec, 137
- contributing editor positions, 179–180
- copyrights, 116–118
- copywriting, 24
- cost of starting your business, 6
- courses in writing, 5
- cover letters. see query letters; reprints
- credentials. see clips
- credits, 65–66, 88
- deadlines, 69, 162–163
- e-queries. see electronic queries
- e-zines, 24, 25, 110
- editing articles, 78, 146, 163–164, 167–169
- editors. see also negotiating
 - contacting, 160–163
 - email addresses, 121–122
 - finding the right one, 45
 - following up a query, 124–126, 173
 - impressing, 95, 96, 159, 170
 - keeping track of, 128–129, 182
 - late payments, 185–187
 - masthead, 33–34
 - phone etiquette, 8
 - relationships with, 174–178, 181
 - warning signs, 188–189
- edits to articles, 78, 146, 163–164, 167–169
- electronic queries. see also query letters
 - attachments, 67
 - benefits of, 119, 122
 - drawbacks of, 119
 - email addresses, 121
 - format of, 54, 61, 120
- electronic rights, 115
- email queries. see electronic queries
- essay market, 24–25, 50–51, 198–200
- evergreens, 198
- exclusivity, 201–202
- expenses, start-up, 6
- expertise, 80, 111
- experts, 12, 44. see also interviews

- extensions, 162–163
- fact-checking
 - interviews, 153–155
 - magazines that fabricate, 203–204
 - materials to provide, 169–170
 - source sheets, 147
- faxes, 9, 122
- fees, 131–132, 184–185, 188–189
- filing. see record keeping
- first North American serial rights, 103, 104, 105, 115
- FNASR, 103, 104, 105, 115
- FOB (Front-of-the-book material), 47-50, 115
- formal letters, 54, 92
- format of query letters, 54, 61, 67, 120
- front-of-the-book material (FOB), 47-50, 115
- generalizing, 170
- ghostwriting, 213–214
- goals, 6, 80–83
- graphics, 64, 134–135, 147–148
- health magazines, query letter tips, 63
- humor, 165
- ideas for writing. see topic ideas
- incorporating, 9, 10
- International Reply Coupon (IRC), 72
- internet writing, 24, 25, 110
- interviews
 - with celebrities, 151
 - conversation management, 155–156
 - exclusivity deals, 201–202
 - phone, email or in person, 149–150
 - preparation, 149, 152
 - quotes from, 157–158, 203–204
 - recording and verifying facts, 153–155
 - transcripts of, 147
- introductions, 92. see also leads
- invoices, sample second notice letter, 186
- IRC, 72
- kill fees, 132–133
- late payments, 185–187
- lead time, 43
- leads
 - question, 60
 - statistic, 58–59
 - "that's what", 60
 - tie-ins, 59
 - working title, 61
 - Zimmerman, 57–58
- legal issues. see contracts; libel; taxes
- letters, formal, 54, 92
- libel, 200, 203–204
- literary magazines, 24–25
- literary techniques, 77
- long-term goals, 81–82
- magazines. see also market research
 - analysis of, 33–37, 42–43
 - guidelines, 27, 29
 - health, 63
 - lead time, 43
 - literary, 24–25
 - mastheads, 33–36, 121
 - trade, 23–24
 - women's, 63, 203–204
- market analysis. see market research
- market research
 - advertisements, studying, 42–43
 - exercise, 46
 - magazine analysis, 33–37
 - media kits, 41–43
 - print resources, 26–27
 - tone and style of magazine, 39–41
 - web resources, 26, 28–29
- marketing, 89–90. see also market research
- mastheads, 33–36, 121
- media kits, 41–43
- model release forms, 147–148
- movie rights, 115
- multiple topic query, 94, 95
- negotiating
 - contracts, 131–134, 140–142
 - edits, to articles, 167–169
 - practice exercise in, 142–146
 - reprint fees, 140
 - writing on spec, 137
- networking, 186-189, 192–193
- new publications. see start-ups
- New York Times, Tasini v.*, 138–139
- offerings paragraph, 63–65
- one-time rights, 104, 115
- online writing, 24–25, 110
- openings. see leads
- organizing. see record keeping
- payment
 - considerations, 184–185
 - contract terms, 131–133
 - for reprints, 101–103, 106, 140
 - warning signs, 188–189
- persistence, 129–130, 197
- personal stories, 50–51, 198–200
- phone etiquette, 8, 116
- photography, 64, 134–135, 147–148
- pitching a story. see query letters
- plagiarism, 116, 117
- poetry, 24-25
- pre-queries, 180–181
- press releases, 15–16, 89, 156
- professional affiliations, 186-189, 192–193
- published work, 104, 105
- puns, 60
- query letters. see also clips; electronic queries; leads
 - audience, 37, 96

- bio, 65–66
- competition, 202–203
- components of, 53, 61–63
- confidence in, 91
- format of, 54, 67
- less is more, 89
- multiple topics, 94–95
- offerings paragraph, 63–65
- opening, 54–57
- practice exercises for, 30–32, 99–100
- pre-queries, 180–181
- samples, 73–74, 221, 222, 223, 224
- shortcuts, 73–75
- simultaneous submissions, 113
- specificity in, 12
- style, 73–75
- synopsis, 61, 62
- techniques, 77
- by telephone, 116
- what not to do, 89–93
- when not to send, 114
- question leads, 60
- quotes, 156, 157–158, 203–204
- record keeping, 126–127, 182, 204–207
- recycling an article, 107. see also reprints
- referrals from editors, 66
- registering for copyright, 118
- rejection, 78–79, 80, 81
- reprints
 - examples that sell, 102–103
 - markets for, 110
 - rights to, 115
 - payment, 101, 102, 103, 106, 140
 - querying for, writing a cover letter, 102, 104
 - reselling your published work, 101
 - versus rewriting or spin-off, 102
 - rights, 103, 115
 - sample letter, 106
- reputation, as a writer, 66, 98, 105
- reselling your articles. see reprints
- reusing an article, 107–110. see also reprints
- revising. see editing articles
- rights, 103–104, 110, 115. see also contracts; copyrights
- sample articles, 69–70
- SASE, 71–72
- second serial rights, 115
- self-addressed stamped envelope (SASE), 71–72
- self-syndication, 211–213
- selling your work. see query letters; market research
- short-term goals, 80–82
- shortcuts, 73–75, 180–181
- sidebars, 134–135
- simultaneous submissions, 113
- skill development
 - goals, 84
 - magazine analysis, 46
 - market analysis, 30–32
 - query letters, 99–100
 - syndication, 215–216
 - topic ideas, 18, 19–20
- source sheet, 147. see also fact-checking
- sources, 44, 89–90
- spec writing, 136–139
- specializing, 170–172
- speculation writing, 136–139
- spin-offs, 107–110. see also reprints
- start-up expenses, 6
- start-ups, writing for, 190–191
- statistic leads, 58–59
- stock photos, 64
- story ideas. see topic ideas
- style, 73–77, 166–167
- syndication, 96, 97, 208–216
- synopses, 61, 62
- targeting. see audience
- Tasini v New York Times*, 138–139
- taxes, 204–208
- techniques, literary, 77
- telephone etiquette, 8, 116
- television rights, 115
- thank you notes, 96
- topic ideas
 - deciding whether to write, 109–110
 - generating, 11–12, 59
 - popular topics, 14–15
 - practice exercises, 18, 19–22
 - press releases, 15–16
 - slanting, 17
 - sources of, 13, 44–45
 - web resources, 16
- trade magazine market, 23–24
- transcripts, 147. see also fact-checking; interviews
- TV/motion picture rights, 115
- US Copyright Office, 118
- visuals for articles, 64, 134–135, 147–148
- websites, 24, 25, 68, 110. see also reprints
- women's magazines query letter tips, 63
- work environment, 8
- work-for-hire, 115
- working title, 61
- writer's ad, 93, 94, 110–111
- Writer's Market*, 13, 26
- writing courses, 5
- writing what you know, 11–12, 80. see also topic ideas
- Zimmerman leads, 57–58